Our Staff--

With Jane Shook, editor, and Dale Shoup, business manager, at the controls the Big Broadcast edition of the Chaos has been prepared for your enjoyment. The other staff members co-operated and are proud to present this picture-word guide of 1940-1941 in station R. H. S.

Standing: Lane, Sage, Dean, Kurtz, Shook, Shoup.

BOARD of EDUCATION

Technicians

With Mr. Delos Dean as president, Dr. Harry English as secretary and Mr. LeRoy Kurtz as treasurer the broadcast program with its interested sponsors was rated as tops for 1940-1941. The expense for the network was not too great and as willing contributors the broadcast series was continued for another nine months.

Without the energetic cooperation of these technicians donating their services in directing the radio show, the Big Broadcast would have been impossible. With the exception of Mr. Kurtz these technical advisers were trained in the home station R. H. S.

City Detective Agency,
Station R. H. S.
Gentlemen:

If you are familiar with station R. H. S. you know that Superintendent R. L. Cleaveland is the speediest, most energetic and enthusiastic director. He is resourceful and requests made of him are promptly granted. His straight thinking has produced resultant performances that are smooth running. So well does he plan his routine that "His Guiding Light" is an aid to his teachers.

Sincerely yours,
Chaos Staff Reporter,
Picture-Word Guide Editor.

Detective McGinnis,
Rensselaer, Indiana.
Gentlemen:

In answer to your request our chief detective has secured this dope on Principal Loyal Hoshaw. I am sorry to admit we cannot make a complete incident-by-incident report on a full day of his routine activities as the space allotted us is much too short. This man, rightfully acclaimed "Mr. Keene, Tracer of Lost Persons," cheerfully performs his teaching and administrative duties. He treats his students in a human and unbiased way. As a director he carefully forecasts results and so keeps his station R. H. S. well modulated and accurately tuned.

Yours truly,
Chaos Staff Reporter,
The Big Broadcast.

MR. ROBERT CLEAVELAND
Superintendent

HOWARD BRUCE
Vice President

"Ladies and Gentlemen. We present to you the most spectacular, the most radiant, the most colossal stars of our entire radio hook-up. This program is presented under the leadership of Miss Elizabeth Kresler and Mr. Dale Welper, as chief technical advisers. Ed Ritchie, head engineer, Howard Bruce, his assistant, and Betty Jane Wilcox, the financial manager directed the destinies of the cast. The class motto, 'Nil Desperandum,' the class colors, red and white, and the flower, the white carnation, are the distinguishing features of these fine youths.

We introduce to you our grid stars—Weltzin, Moore, Warren, Putnam, Bowman, Ritchie, and Hudson. Their line of force, accurate passing, and blocking brought their record to an almost unblemished finish.

Keyed to great harmonic pitch they presented on November fifteenth, "Tons of Money; a rollicking comedy starring Betty L. Wallace, Bob Gamster, Neal Warren, Ed Ritchie, Doris Britt, Betty J. Wilcox, Dale Shoup, Lucile Biggs, Charles Bowman, and Raymond Smith. This production was appreciably received.

Basketball came in with the super signal strength of such boys of this cast as Hudson, Wiles, Ritchie, Warren, Bowman, Putnam, Gosnell, and Weltzin, who joined forces to produce a winning team. Johnny Timmons closed his career as athletic manager.

And now, friends of our radio audience, let me introduce to you Jane Shook, who received two coveted distinctions. She was State Sunshine President and Valedictorian of this class.

This concludes our broadcast of the evening. Don't forget to tune in for the Commencement Address delivered on May 27, by Mr. Paul Beam a former student of R. H. S. For further details concerning these illustrious stars keep turning the dial."

"The March of Time"

The following program is broadcast on this fine May day, 1948, from Station R. H. S. under the sponsorship of the Certified Classy Chaos Company. Buy a Chaos and avoid a chance of missing the past and future events.

This 'Classy Chaos,' little though it be,
Is replete with wondrous novelties.
Buy it at once and keep abreast of the time
Now let your ace reporter end this rhyme."

MANETTE BEAL, "Hit of the Day," realized her ambition and is to be a secretary to Bob Hope. FOREST BARBER, eminent physician and surgeon, recently completed his latest book, "One Man's Opinion." BOWMAN, RITCHIE, and WILES, coaches at St. Joe, Purdue, and I. U., broadcast their flashy "Football Roundup" over the Mutual Network of R. H. S. DORIS BRITT and LOLA TORBET have gained much popularity in a recently conducted poll and it feared that Brenda and Cobina will soon be replaced by them. JOHN-NIE RUSK, B. BROWN, and "Pot of Gold" BRUCE, "Vagabonds" deluxe, finally graduated, passed geometry, and were married. They recently returned from a delightful sojourn in Tahiti. A delightful act "Designed for Dancing," was staged at the Rialto theater by CARMAN, CARMAN, and BIGGS. Their coiffures were stunningly arranged by Madam DANIELS of the Vogue Review. Aviators JOHN CAIN and HAROLD BRADDOCK recently led a mass flight of U. S. bombers on an inspection tour. "Pepper Young's Family" will broadcast its 500th radio program tomorrow, the principal actors are still MARY and BOB GAMSTER and family. Mary decided to give up her nursing career years ago. "Betty Crocker" HANCOCK'S advice to homemakers broadcast daily during Jim Poole SMITH'S farm hour was so favorably accepted that "Singin' Sam" Warren, the "Barbasol Man," finally secured the right technique to hook-up with "Double Dip" Scantlin. STATH and STATH, Secretaries Incorporated, are editors of the "Country Journal." The chief contributors to their "Radio Gossip Club" are LOIS GRANT and HELEN DUGGINS. Helen reports that the latest fashion trends are now more ridiculous than in 1940. The latest and swankiest model resembled an air port with numerous planes ready to take off. VIRGINIA JEFFERY recently purchased the "Sip and Bite." Every night from 3 to 5 she presents "College Rhythm." A "Tri-State Hospital Ass'n." whose chief surgeon is the young RUBY JOHNSON daily presents the half-hour broadcast of "The Ladies In White." KNOERZER, GWIN, and EIB play the leading roles. Secretary of War FLORENCE in her round table discussion emphasized the signal strength that "Gang Busters" DONALD TIMMONS and RED PUTNAM have radiated. Putnam, the Jasper County game warden, has eliminated much of the unlawful killing of wild game. These gang busters with the super power of Policeman HUBERT STILES tracked down a recent violator who had wired his class symbol on the school flag pole. Their super sleuth was CAPT. MIDNIGHT MOORE.

The latest news scoop on the three Rensselaer lawyers, JOHN TIMMONS, SHOUP, and SHELLY, disclosed they had padded the jury during the trial of "Little Man What Next" COOK who was accused of violating the speed limit in Hanging Grove. "Rhapsody in Brass" SHOUP was dismissed from the case. Sports announcer ED. LONERGAN of station W.I.N.D. was all ready to key up the public concerning the ultra high power range of pitcher OSBURN, when much to the sorrow of his fans, F. D. R. desired the mutual network for his fireside chat. JANE SHOOK and MAXINE STILLMAN in their "Battle of Wits" ruled harmonic generation had been finally established between the members of the junior class. The "Hank and Dude Ranchers," KNOERZER and EPLER, won very great fame at the National Farm Show. Knoerzer's onions were recognized as the strongest and most odorous while Epler's squash received the blue ribbon for being the seediest. Sherlock HOLMES as Jasper County's agent is the hero of the latest radio serial "The Man I Married" by EDITH ZILLHART. RICHARD GOSNELL, "A Friend In Need," has finally been graduated and has left with much regret his laundry and cleaning work (excluding dusting erasers) to the "Man on the Streets" KRUZAN. JOHN HUDSON, "Jack Armstrong, the All-American Boy," was the recipient of a scholarship for young artists. John has been assigned to pursue his studies in Paris. While roaming around the student quarters of the gay city he broke in on an American review in the Chez Paris Cafe. There to his great surprise were KANNE and KANNEY in "Round the Town." He discovered CAROLINE NAGEL had just received the Academy Award for her new play "Life Can Be Beautiful." Her play "Linda's First Love" starring MARY JEAN GAINES and JANE LOWRY was just finishing its New York run. On the Clipper flying to Paris, John had met the stewardess, BETTY LOU WALLACE, who was enthusiastic about her work. Betty Lou has a new home in Paris which she calls the "Hermit's Cave." While in Paris her classmates, Hudson, Kanne, and Kanney, call frequently. On the Clipper, "Valiant Lady," BETTY JANE WILCOX was the operator of the beauty salon. ARDIS JACKS conducts a school appropriately called "Charm House." Here she daily generates patterns and symbols of good conduct. EUKA SALYERS, "The Girl Alone," teaches a class on "How to live Alone and Like It." JOHN JORDAN, "The Answer Man," meets the rural emergencies by carrying on extensive poultry extension work. "Ma Perkins" RAMEY passes out timely home comments to the "Early Risers Club." WADE WELTZIN'S "Melody Farm" is the show place of Jasper County. He uses all "The Wife Saver" devices that chief engineer, DALE HERMANSON can hook up. He even employs a carrier and buzzwire system so by remote control the cows in the barn can enjoy the "Contented Hour" sponsored by Carnation Milk. ELNORA PARKISON and THELMA JACKSON, producers of "Sunday Sunshine," are a most popular duet. They conduct their "Old Fashioned Revival" amid the chanting and crooning of "Life Can Be Beautiful."

And so, Ladies and Gentlemen, this concludes our latest news of the Class of 1941. Don't forget to buy your copy of the "Classy Chaos" at once. Keep your dials tuned to station R. H. S. for the latest news of the day.

"The Battle of the Sexes"

BLAINE MERRIMAN
President

DORIS MILLER
Treasurer

ANITA PUTTS
Vice President

"Station R. H. S. now presents for your pleasure time the 'Battle of the Sexes' with the members of the junior class participating. As masters of ceremonies we find Minna Mae Bartley and Mr. Homer Clark. The battle is on."

"Blaine Merriman, president, can you tell me whether or not the boys or girls are more active in your class?"

"Without a doubt, sir, the boys are. Think how valuable our athletes Dale Ames, Keith Nesbitt, Glen Alson, Keith Schuman, Delos Wood, Lyle Ames, William Woodworth and I were to R. H. S."

"Mr. Announcer, I, Anita Putts, class vice president, disagree. Didn't the feminine side provide two class officers? Doris Miller is class secretary. We can boast of officers in the various school activities besides leading roles in the class plays."

"Now, now, let's not argue that point. Aren't there other interesting news items concerning your class? Aren't you forgetting to tell the public about your grand play "What A Life" and that colossal Junior Prom? Everyone should know how your class enlivened by the friendly strife, which seems to be ever present, co-operated so well to make this ball a marvelous climax for the year."

"Yes, that is so. I would like you to know that Crimson and Gold are our class colors; the red and yellow roses our class flowers; "Ad Astra Per Aspera" our class motto."

"That's fine contestants. While the judges are making their decision as to the winners of this contest, I'll pause awhile for station identification."

"Midstream"

DICK BURNS
President

PATTY PROUTY
Treasurer

JACK LEWIS
Vice President

The makers of Soapy Suds Soap present 'Midstream' under the leadership of Mr. William Holt and Miss Elizabeth Henline who bring you this program from station R. H. S. We have with us today the winners of last week's contest who are representing the eighty-five members of the sophomore class, more appropriately called 'Midstreamers.'

Dick Burns, the class president, says that Paul Ames, Bill Babcock, Duke Bowman, Archie Dawson, Ken Ford, Jack Lewis, Carl Malone, Paul Moore, Ralph Selby and he were stellar athletes on the football and basketball squads. You remember, radio audience, these long hot shots of Duke's, don't you?

Next class delegate is Jack Lewis who ably assisted as vice president. He tells us the class members were also outstanding in Hi-Y, F. F. A., and other school activities.

Patty Prouty, class secretary-treasurer, represents the feminine angle of her class. She asserts that the girls were as active as the boys in their respective organizations, the Sunshine Society, Dolly Madison and G. A. A.

These students tell me the class motto is 'One For All and All For One' with blue and white their colors. The class flower is the white carnation.

One outstanding feat of our class was to have our representative, Anita Feldhaus, crowned 'Athletic Contest Queen.'

Thank you, students, for all this fine information. Now on with the program."

"Amateur Hour"

GLEN HANCOCK
President

MARILYN LUNghi
Treasurer

JAMES WAGNER
Vice President

"Round and round it goes and where it stops nobody knows. Tonight we have the Quiz Kids of 1944, as our contestants. This is Major Davisson speaking in collaboration with our announcer, Miss Russell. Our first contestant is Glen Hancock, the monitor of these potential kids. 'How much power input is there in these Quiz Kids?'"

"78, Major."

"All right all right! Our next contestant is James Wagner, the vice monitor of this body. Now, how many and who were the members of the football squad?"

"There were six who embarked on the threshold of an athletic career. They were Tommy York, Ralph Smith, Max Overton, Vernon Shindelar, Delmar Dawson, and Joe Putts."

"That was fine. Our third contestant, Marilyn Lunghi, is our recorder of technical data and also a contestant for the Athletic Queen Contest. Who along with you was the other contestant?"

"Our other contestant was Barbara Parkison. However, neither of us seemed to be good enough for a 'Midstreamer' won."

"We now pause for station identification."

"Here is our first contestant again. Glen, will you tell us in how many activities the Kids are represented?"

"They are active in the Sunshine Society, F. C. A., F. F. A., G. A. A., Band, Chorus, Chaos, Rensselaerien, Hi-Y, and Dolly Madison."

"That's fine, they certainly are an active group. James, since you're back, I'm going to ask you if the Kids transmitted anything to the audience?"

"Yes. They sponsored a tea dance and also had a party on November 1, 1940."

"I take it you had a lot of hum, buz, hiss, and howl."

"That's right."

"Our last contestant is Betty Kurtz, the Kids' representative on the Chaos. Now Betty, tell us, if you can, the colors, flower, and motto of the Kids."

"That's easy. The colors are blue and gold. The flower is the yellow rose, and the motto is 'Possunt Qui Putant Posse.'"

"That is correct. I guess that concludes our program for 1940-1941."

"For Women Only"

"Featured today on our program "For Women Only" is the Rensselaer Sunshine Society. Miss Elizabeth Kresler, the chief moderator, will review the most salient features of the year's program."

"To begin with, I must mention Jane Shook, the 1941 State President. Through her genuine enthusiasm she did much toward making the State Convention a success. The officers of the year were Maxine Stillman, Anita Feldhaus, Ruth Lee, Doris Hoeflerin and Ardis Jacks. They, so graciously assisted by Mrs. Harold Sage and Jacqueline Dean, inducted the Goodland chapter into the state organization.

The theme of the year was carried out by interesting programs presented by Mrs. Arthur Hopkins, Mrs. Blanche Chapman, and the Revsrend Earl Moore. Other highlights of the year were the Christmas party for thirty-five primary youngsters, the annual giving of Thanksgiving baskets, our Sunshine dances, the delightful Mother's Day Tea, which featured Mrs. Charles Upham's book review, our Easter program presenting Mrs. Harold Baker who reviewed the Passion Play, and the State Sunshine Round-Up at Tipton.

I believe it can truly be said that most Sunshiners are conscious of the creed which says "With love in my heart forgetting self, and with charity and kindness for all, I shall strive to make the object of my life helpfulness and kindness to others."

"Boys Town"

The sponsor and cast of "Boys Town" have been very active in making station R. H. S. a success. The sponsor, Mr. Holt, the director, Dale Shoup, the rehearsal manager, Keith Nesbitt, the announcer, William Ramey, and the financial manager, Hilton "Duke" Bowman—have all cooperated in giving to the home station and listeners good clean entertainment. Besides holding their bi-monthly programs, they have sponsored or co-sponsored such worthy causes as the President's Birthday Program, supplying spectators at athletic events with food and drink furnishing schedule cards and pencils for the workers around the station, and a chili supper for their fathers, at which they had Merle Carver, state Y. M. C. A. secretary as speaker.

The Hi-Y is the only boys program which is on a class to class hook-up. Any boy, no matter what course he is taking, may become a member of the club. The membership this year is sixty boys.

A delegation of members headed by President Shoup and Sponsor Holt represented the Hi-Y at the state convention at Evansville this year.

"Homemakers' Hour"

"Good morning, radio neighbors. This is Grace Russell speaking from the studio in our laboratory of R. H. S.

Today the discussion is centered upon our own school system. As you know, the name of our organization is the Dolly Madison Club and its membership consists of the home economics students. We have experienced many interesting things this year since we have such a convenient and completely furnished laboratory. On our schedule we served several dinners, including a Thanksgiving dinner for faculty members and a Rotarian banquet at Christmas. Our tables were made more attractive by the beautiful and gay colored luncheon sets our girls made. The most laborious and yet profitable banquet served was the Egg and Broiler dinner to five hundred people.

Lois Reed carried away awards for the best vegetable plate and canning. Marilyn Lashbrook received a prize for the best 4H record in the county. Frieda Stath was the recipient of first prize in the Farm Bureau baking contest while Sarah Lowry also received a medal as county winner for 4H food preparation. Maxine Stillman placed third in the district room improvement judging contest.

The space is up. Please tune in again when the Homemakers' Hour is again presented to you through the courtesy of R. H. S."

"Home Builders"

If, on some Thursday, you dial R. H. S., which is on a frequency of 300 studio-cycles, and hear grinding or sawing, don't push the button. What you hear is not static but merely a broadcast directly from the workshop of the Future Craftsmen of America.

For all who coordinate hands and brain, this should be a very interesting program. Over in one corner of the shop, standing by the "mike" is John Hudson, versatile president of the club. John is not only a leader in handicraft but an outstanding athlete and scholar as well. Also grouped around the "mike" are John Cain and Judson Holmes, vice president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, and William Holt, sponsor. They are discussing the subject of "Hobbies" this morning. Hobbies are considered important around this shop—so important in fact that on one of their other programs, each boy gave a five minute talk on his hobby, and he illustrated it with examples of his opus. For those in the club interested in model airplanes, a program featuring Jay Yoeman was presented. On another of their programs, Mr. R. L. Cleaveland, Superintendent of the R. H. S. network, gave a talk. For their own enjoyment, the club sponsored two movies the second semester.

It is the aim of this club to take at least one educative trip every year, visiting great industrial plants such as the Gary steel mills or a large furniture factory. This year the club traveled to Logansport to inspect one of the industries of that city.

"The Voice of the Student"

"Good evening, students of R. H. S. This is Minna Mae Bartley speaking to you from the press shop of our studio. We have with us this evening Avalyn Lane, co-editor, who will review for you the history of our paper."

"The first issue of the Rensselaerian was circulated in 1920 after a heated discussion concerning its name. Byron Hemphill '20 was the first editor and the sponsor was Miss Blanche Merry. Ruby Johnson is my co-helper. Today the circulation has increased so that a local print shop is now given the printing contract. The last two years we have sold the paper for twenty cents a year so that each student could buy a subscription. Much of the success of the paper is due to the enthusiastic and capable staff members, especially Jacqueline Dean, assistant editor, Maxine Stillman, Phil Cook, and Freda Stath, copy editors; Jane Shook, feature editor; Robert Gamster, business manager; Keith Schuman and John Reeve, advertising managers; Betty Jane Wilcox and Carmela Kanney, circulating managers."

"This concludes our discussion of the Rensselaerian which brings to you with each edition the voice and opinion of our students."

"Hoosier Farm Folks"

"This is station R. H. S. bringing to the radio audience the wonderful accomplishments of our Hoosier Farm Folks through the courtesy of the Better Farm Homes Incorporated.

Not only local but state recognition has been heaped upon our headliner, Ray Smith. He has won two awards at the 1940 State Fair with his grand champion farrow and pen of farrow. Ray was the winner of the coveted Wilson scholarship which will cover his tuition in some vocational college.

The membership of this club is composed entirely of rural boys who really enjoy their work around the home station. Mr. Ray Bundy, their chief adviser, and Ray Smith, their local president, plan interesting and practical meetings for the group.

Besides being skilled farmers the boys displayed unique ability as basketball players in the intramural tourney.

Two boys, Ray Smith and Walter Nagel, were local delegates to the F. F. A. Convention at Purdue.

The other directors besides president Ray Smith were vice president, Gerald Saltwell; secretary, Walter Nagel; treasurer, Blaine Merriman.

The wiener roast held at Curtis Creek and the spring dance sponsored by the club were other highlights in the year's program.

Listen in next year for more news concerning our Hoosier Farm Folks."

"This World of Ours"

Hop aboard the S and M special rocket ship for a trip to the land of adventure. Take a squint into the televisior and see the future of this world of ours. Once again the daring deeds and exploits of our Science and Math. club are presented to you through the courtesy of our local instructors H. T. Clark and A. D. Welper.

Bob Brown as chief engineer, Howard Bruce, the co-pilot, and Dorothy Robinson, recorder of technical data, directed the adventures of the club. Father Bacehle of St. Joseph revealed to the radio audience the vast wealth of interesting and fascinating material relative to the study of bugs. The members themselves carried on individual research connected with this changing era of ours.

Today we see them busily plotting entertainment for the jitterbugs of our school. One can see in the televisior that the rumba and the conga are slowly — Siss! Boom! Crash! My, what a noise from our expert scientists.

Listen in next year and find out the cause of the recent commotion. This has been a Science and Math radio presentation. At the sound of the musical note the time will be just long enough to get aboard the rocket."

"Keep Fit To Music"

"Time for class to begin. Up on your toes. Kick off your shoes. Get ready for fifteen minutes of exercise for this is Stoner speaking to you from radio station R. H. S. I represent the Classy Chassis Corporation. Does your body need to be streamlined? If so, join us in our program of fun.

Before continuing with our routine exercises let me first tell you about my able assistant of G. A. A., Miss Betty Jane Wilcox. She is an enthusiastic leader and her capabilities are unlimited.

The G. A. A. assisted the Sunshiners with the Christmas party for the primary children. We had charge of the games and entertainments. Every few weeks we sponsored a skating class in the old gym and had many ardent devotees, especially among the primary youngsters. We presented for the entertainment of the students a pep session during which we had the special privilege of listening to our unique "Lefty" Clark.

These are all the announcements for this time. Lie down on your backs and get ready. All set! Music, please."

"Five Star Finals"

"Tons of Money"

Presented by the class of 1941

Director Irene Rhodes

"Good morning! For the second time we saw the amazing fan-following of the 'Stars of the Evening.' Now as they closed their dramatic careers all we could say was: 'They've done it again!' Their performance was unprecedented as each star acted his part perfectly.

The plot dealt with the Allingtons, a young couple who owed everyone in town. A lawyer appeared on the scene and told Aubrey that he had inherited a large estate from his uncle, but at his death the inheritance was to go to his cousin, George Maitland. Louise, the wife, who was always full of ideas, decided that Aubrey should pretend to be killed and reappear as his cousin in order to avoid paying his debts. How this theme developed, hindered by the intrigues of the butler, made an entertaining and fantastic play."

"What a Life" Presented by the class of 1942
Director Elizabeth Henline

"AH-H-H! A thriller, no less! But what a life Henry Aldrich leads. He certainly could tangle himself up in more predicaments than one could imagine. Henry, a typical American boy, has experiences, many and varied. Much to his chagrin he finds that passing a history exam is the hardest task he has ever faced. When he cheats from George Bigelow's paper, he discovers the world is a very unhappy place. He is later accused of stealing band instruments from the school. Too, he is forced to try and live up to his father's reputation of being a Phi Beta Kappa. All in all, Henry has many obstacles to overcome but in the "Aldrich" spirit he masters the situations. The play was a wow!"

"Pigskin Parade"

"Good evening, Ladies and Gentlemen. Every year at this time, station R. H. S. presents for your enjoyment the "Pigskin Parade" through the courtesy of W. E. Bausman and H. M. Davisson with the cooperation of your own football heroes.

Do you suffer from "Sta-in-at-nitus" in the fall of the year? Do you have a feeling of dissatisfaction because everyone leaves the house and attends the football games? If you do, you are probably suffering from "in-fall-enza" and a football game is your only cure.

This year the "Battling Bombers," a scrappy little team, turned out a successful season but failed to repeat the undefeated record of our 1939 team. The Bombers starting in a surge of victories kept going at a gruelling pace until the very end of the season when two larger teams, Wabash and Jefferson brought our undefeated record to a close.

Starting the season, the Bombers first turned back Morocco and then upset the rope bucket by overwhelming the strong Michigan City Eleven. The boys from Monticello were next, and a week later Crown Point returned home annihilated. In the first game of the season away from home, the Bombers scored twice in the fourth quarter to defeat Lowell. Then it happened. Jefferson of Lafayette, out to avenge their 1939 defeat, snapped our string of thirteen consecutive victories. The Bombers ended their 1940 campaign by dropping the last one to the highly lauded Wabash "Apaches."

Seven boys, Ritchie, Putnam, Hudson, Weltzin, Brown, Moore, and co-captains "Chappy" Bowman and Warren played their last games for R. H. S. ED. RITCHIE played the quarterback position in which he displayed the same self-confidence and determination that were characteristic of his personality all through his high school career. JOHN HUDSON, quiet little halfback, played the whole year in the same position vacated by our former grid star Bob Kanne. CHARLES BOWMAN was the boy who practically defeated Lowell single-handed by displaying almost supernatural drive and stamina. It was this type of play that made "Chappie" unique in all fields of endeavor. NEAL WARREN, playing his second year as varsity center, was an accurate passer and his terrific drive made him indispensable. The other four seniors MOORE, BROWN, PUTNAM, and WELTZIN were excellent on defense and opened up large holes for Rensselaer's offense.

The other members of the squad, Dale Ames, Lyle Ames, Wm. Woodworth, Delos Wood and the rest were capable gain getters for the team. They will all be back next year fighting hard.

The "Pigskin Parade" has been presented for your entertainment by the R. H. S. Bombers under the direction of the athletic staff. So until next year we bid you good-bye. This is station R. H. S. operating on a frequency of once a year over the Red and Black network."

"Hoosier Hotshots"

"Ladies and Gentlemen. Do you suffer from exhaustion and fatigue after a few hours work? If you do, you need our tonic 'Exuberant Energizer.' It costs only the small sum of a little loyalty to the 'Battling Bombers.' Since our season was so successful my sponsors have relinquished their radio time so that I might recount for you the high spots of the 1940-1941 season.

The Bombers opened the season with several straight victories instilling confidence in the minds of their most ardent followers. It was their dogged determination that carried them through to the end. The Bombers did not let their fans down.

Rensselaer, lacking the all-around height of many teams, depended on speed and more speed, quick breaks by its hard driving guards and whenever the occasion arose, a fast break that burned out more than one ball club in 32 minutes of play. Rensselaer built many of its plays around 'Wily Bob Wiles. In a 26 game schedule, including sectional play, the Bombers checked in with 19 wins against 7 defeats. They averaged 31.9 points offensively a game this season while the opposition clipped along at 27.4 points per game.

Much of the success of the team goes to Coach Bausman whose teams in the seven years as coach of R. H. S. have made four trips to the regional wars. This record is worthy of any praise you may wish to make. He developed a smoothness in his team and their expert ball-handling was flawless.

BOB WILES, All-Regional Center in 1939 and All-Regional Forward in 1941 finished his high school career this year. He is undoubtedly one of the greatest pivot men to come out of this region of the state. ED. RITCHIE, All-Regional Guard, will always be remembered for his brilliant one-handed shots, his hard driving speed, and expert guarding. He and Bob Wiles, each with 22 points, were high point men of the tourney. JOHN HUDSON, veteran senior forward and KEITH NESBITT, All-Regional forward, teamed together, formed a combination hard to equal in R. H. S. basketball history. ED. PUTNAM and DALE AMES, as guards, always accounted well for themselves by keeping their opponents in the scoring background. CHARLES BOWMAN, snappy and hard-driving guard, spurred the team on to victory many times. The other tourney players were DUKE BOWMAN, BLAINE MERRIMAN, and RICHARD GOSNELL. NEAL WARREN and WADE WELTZIN, senior players, have ended their playing careers as R. H. S. athletes.

Bob Wiles and Ed. Ritchie were elected co-captains of the 1940-1941 team. The Boosters' Club Dinner, featuring Tom Harmon, Michigan's football star, closed the season with a fitting expression of the high esteem with which the members of the athletic teams and their coaches are held.

This is your ace reporter finishing his broadcast which was brought to you through the facilities of station R. H. S., having a full day and night time power of unlimited capacity watts."

"The Speedway"

"This is your sports announcer bringing to you a resume of the 'Thinlies' of R. H. S. Have you purchased your Speedway Special Spectacles? If you haven't, hurry up and do so, because the special price is offered for a limited time only. The pleasure derived from these high powered binoculars is incredible. You no longer have to guess who finished the race first with the aid of these.

Bob Gamster and Charles Bowman, veteran 'carbon cutters' of the track offered the spectators many thrills. "Chappie," a fleet-footed son of the cinder circle won the mile and half mile consistently in competitive meets. Bob Gamster, one hundred yard dash man, burned up the track in 10.3 seconds.

Rensselaer participated in several dual, sectional, and R. M. D. meets. Now that we have such a fine new athletic field and cinder track, track fans can expect bigger and better track meets in the future.

Don't forget to listen in to the next sports broadcast through the courtesy of the makers of Speedway Special Spectacles."

Radio Digest

1940-1941

This is the Bausman and Wallace news resume' of the year brought to you from station W. H. S. Only the most outstanding events will be reviewed for you over this busy network.

In September the Rensselaerians with books thrown over their shoulders trudge back to the studio for the first broadcast of 1940-41. The newcomers were welcomed with due ceremony and the former friends renewed their friendships. September 12th found the Bombers beginning their football campaign with the Morocco Beavers as their victims. People crowded the football field eagerly awaiting the opener of the season. On September 23rd the football boys, minus ten cents, staged a feed at Curtis Creek. Chappy served as chief chef. The head athletic coach, Slim Bausman, was plenty pleased with his rough cut version of the 1940 football squad which snatched its Homecoming victory 47-0 from Monticello. Dance afterwards—lights out for the football squad as coach advised rest for them??? Still possible to get in Lunghi's as St. Joe fails to open on schedule.

October 1st the G. A. A. had picnic. A few F. C. A. boys provided transportation for a few G. A. A. girls. Nice cooperation. On October 4th after the Crown Point defeat the senior termites saw down the goal posts. Nice night work, boys. October 10th saw the students enjoying a matinee in rhythm sponsored by G. A. A. Football players sling a mean foot as they get back into social circulation. Flag fight scheduled for the day quickly quelled by Referee Hoshaw. October 11th saw the Rensselaer Bombers defeat the 13th jinx by winning its thirteenth straight victory from Lowell. The blitzkrieg attack of the Bombers slowed down with mud and fog left Lowell staggering under the grief of a 13-6 defeat. October 12th . . . Swing and sway the collegiate way as St. Joe entertained with a Homecoming dance attended by so many R. H. S. coeds. Good-bye to Mr. Hoshaw's old Chevrolet—good looking new Pontiac replaced it. Nice riding, Jeannette? October 16th—Conscription day—handsome leading men Shadley, Holt, and Hankins revealed their true ungilded ages. Lucky for the ladies that the government hasn't taken them in hand (yet.) October 18th. Defeat was bitter, especially when it was the first in two years. We lost to Jeff. October 21-22-23. Everyone put on his sweetest and best smile and watched the birdie as Chaos pictures were taken. October 23rd Rensselaer lost to Wabash. Rensselaer fans crashed the dance afterwards,—unwelcomed guests. October 30th. Hi-Y initiations attended by many well-behaved Sunshiners. So different from last year. Halloween celebrated in quiet uneventful way. Willkie visited Rensselaer—such an illustrious caller for our little city.

November 5th. Willkie vs Roosevelt. Radio kept busy flashing news reports. November 9th was the day the juniors staged their school dance as students donned their best farm clothes and had the best time at the Corncrib Heedown in a hayseed atmosphere. Such demure little farmerettes in coy bonnets. Pitted the juniors making hay Saturday morning. November 12. Old Spark Plug runs wild—a few senior boys indulged in a most distasteful practice spittoons needed to replace waste baskets. November 15th brought the howling success "Tons of Money." Bob Gamster at home as usual on the stage thrilled the audience with his histrionic ability. Miss Rhodes directed play. Stage received a bath as a few senior boys scrubbed it. Anita Feldhaus was declared "oomph girl" on November 18 when she was elected Athletic Queen. November 20 basketball fans viewed a thriller as the Bombers mowed down the potential champion Horace Mann team 34-27.

November 21. Thanksgiving Day. Students ate maximum amount of turkey and emerged with bad case of dyspepsia. Howard Bruce answered to the "Pot of Gold" ($175) November 22. Corn Show Ball. With a charge of super control output, Jean Thompson, R. H. S. alumna was chosen Corn Queen. November 29. Lefty Clark with his usual funny remarks entertained pep session before the Niles, Michigan game. We won. November 20. Andy Hardy's first date as Boyd Page in knee-pants took prize at Kid Party sponsored by the Dolly Madison Club. This post dance moonlight madness was getting to be a habit, as one girl had to walk home at three o'clock after a slight mishap with a tire. Should use a better brand.

December 6-7. Michigan City, and Laporte halted Bombers' winning streak. December 4th. Fuedin' Scoop!!! Martins and Coys, after riddling one another with many hissing words, decided to collaborate on their dance in the setting of the Club Continental (gym) December 9th. North Judson gave Bombers a run for their money with the final score in our favor (31-25.) December 13th. Band went to town to hear the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra. Mrs. Everett Welday mistaken as the mother of five boys. Oh dear! December 20th. Dance by Science and Math was a huge success. Mr. Holt made an excellent bouncer. December 25th. Santa Claus came to town leaving behind many watches, rings, and lockets. December 30th. R. H. S. opened again but students interested only in plans for the hardwood contest planned for January 1st.

January 1st. Many new resolutions made. Thinkogram—people who complain that they are up to their ears in work are usually lying down on their job. Oh, Holly! Bombers make easy work of the Beavers and Purple Aces and win the New Year's Day Tourney. Slim found all his boys safely under cover New Year's Eve, well anyway, he thought they were. January 2nd. Howard Bruce was eliminated from school. Why?? School did not furnish race horse machines—. Red Putnam considered sporty as he drives an open job and not a station wagon. For a sermon about its good points on 'How to Make A Speedy Exit' see Bob Gamster. January 4th. Best examples of raw material of radio amateurs were the Bombers at East Chicago. Miss Rhodes commented: I look at my wardrobe, and look at my wardrobe, then take it down and wear it. January 13th found the following headline: 'Wrecks a 3 Story Building to Find Place to Park.' Shucks, you ought to see what happened on road 52 when Jackie sideswiped another motorist. Dorothy Daugherty lost a night's sleep just thinking about it. January 14th found the Bombers in their stride again as they outmaneuvered the Brook Aces. January 16th. Chemistry class gave undivided attention as Mr. Cleaveland turned on power supply for those parasitic chemistry students. January 17th. Man Mountain Putnam jumped to his own defense as Mr. Welper's jiuitsu education finally bloomed. January 23rd. Last minute cramming for the dreaded semester exams. One answer received in history said: '1775—The British are coming. 1917—The Yanks are coming—1940—The Tanks are coming. 1941—The Yanks are not coming.' January 27th. Showing her good will toward the foreign situation Maxine Stillman allowed a dashing Mexican to escort her home after St. Joe game. Dumbest answer received on final exams: when asked what the ruins of ancient Rome are noted for, the reply was—'Fallen Arches.' January 30th—Infantile paralysis presented by our own band St. Joe's choir and glee club. A little party for two at Spains turned out to be a party for many. Thrills Indianapolis mile—Doris Miller's neatness—Bob Wile's pivot shot—Avalyn Lane's charming personality—Hitler in exile—Gene Klinefelter's dancing—Our clean basketball team—Our photographer on a shaky ladder—The first football game.

February 2nd. Ground hog day—old man winter taking to cover as groundhog saw shadow. February 7th brought upset of year as Bombers crush the Huntington five. February 12th. Miss Cathcart's history class showed marked acting ability as a play concerning Abraham Lincoln was presented for our enjoyment. Could Wanda Green really imitate a southern belle? Rosy Bowman proved to be a skilled eye roller as she turned her technique on Bill Ramey. February 14th—Valentines galore! Anita Feldhaus did all right for herself with the 1940 basketball captain. Overheard in the hall: I used to prefer an all-day sucker but now I am content to have one take me out for an evening. Bob Jacks, a new sailor, joined the marines to see what's left of the World. February 20th—Senior class went to Indianapolis. Oh, how they were thrilled with the escalators. Chappy became confused and boarded one going the wrong way. Was his face red? By the way—Chappy's favorite song is 'Jeannie With the Light Brown Hair.' February 21st. Sophomores sponsor dance. I prefer: Anita Putt's dry wit—Dorothy Robinson's lovely hair—Ed Ritchie's gentlemanly conduct—Jane Shook's radio fame—Jackie Dean's voice—Ardis Jack's lady-like manners—Boyd Page's perfect wardrobe—Bill Babcock's democracy.

March 1st—March madness! Bombers win Sectional at Morocco. Dale Shoup, one in a million, appointed by Coach Bausman chief fireman. Later played host in the handsome 'Shoup Shelter' to 60 guests honoring the Bombers. March 3rd. Thanks, Mr. Friedersdorf for the movie presented to all the students as a reward for our basketball victory. We enjoyed it in more ways than one. Ehl Pete and Bobbette! March 7th—Snappy snake dance shivered and slinked on town square as students stage send-off to team going to Regional. High point man in pie eating contest was Pete Warren as he downed seven pieces of apple pie at the Athletic Banquet given in team's honor by Boosters' Club. Real treat of evening was splendid talk made by Tom Harmon, a former Rensselaer lad. Mr. Holt heard lamenting: The way my wife introduces bills at my house she ought to make a good member of Congress. March 8th—Bombers roll down Rolling Prairie in opening tilt of Regional war. "The boys from the old country and way down south" sneaked out a victory in final 36—32. Hats off to our team, one of the classiest and cleanest clam of state basketball. March 14th—F. F. A. dance—Too mild for some, so off to Milford. March 20th brought the annual Broller and Egg Show Banquet. Poor Dolly Madisons—bet they'll never want to see chicken again. Ike Barnhart turned up for free lunch. March 21st—Spring comes but once a year, but, my dear, don't let Roosevelt hear. The Sunshiners' Spring Shindig a marvelous symphony of success. Corsages for everyone. Oh, girls, there is no sound more irritating, mentally and financially than the staccato clicking of a gas-oline meter, banana splits twenty-five cents, and steak dinners. Carolyn Kirk's definition of alarm is: That which I am filled with when I've found I've overslept because I forgot to set thee. March 28th—All dials were turned to station R. H. S. to hear "Shadley and His Hour of Charm." March 29th—General exodus of all feminine pulchritude as Sunshiners attend State Convention at Tipton. Jane Shook charmingly and graciously presided giving each girl a personal thrill in her enviable success.

April 1st—Spring brings drug store advertisement, "Ice cream now in season." Spring bonnets make debut. Oh, those lids! Overheard in hall: But I am wearing a hat. It's on the other side. April 11th—14th. Radio station R. H. S. leaves the air for spring repairs. April 18th. Rensselaerian sponsored a dance which featured Johnny Moore's orchestra. "She's a natural beauty," he said. "She looks the same after washing her face." April 22nd. 'What A Life' presented by juniors. Congratulations, troupers! April 25th. Hi-Y Banquet. The worm turned. Many Sunshiners dined at home. A swell affair! April 26th. Art Kassel and orchestra came to town for St. Joe Prom. There were a favored few.

May 9th. Science and Math staged another successful dance. "Doc" Welper and Prof. Clark were everywhere at once—bouncer, ticket-takers, sellers, chaperons, and door watchers. May 16th. Shadley's Band Wagon comes to town. Audience astonished by admirable program. May 23rd. Junior Prom. Inspiration—Elation—Celebration Deflation. May 25th. Baccalaureate. May 26th. Class and Honor Night. May 27th. Commencement. Young students who work so hard to earn diplomas, now wonder what the hurry was. May 29th. Alumni Banquet.

the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Foundation, 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of people with mental health problems, and the importance of providing them with appropriate services. This has led to a number of initiatives, including the development of mental health services, the establishment of mental health trusts, and the implementation of mental health legislation. The aim of this paper is to review the current state of mental health services in the UK, and to discuss the challenges facing them in the future.

The paper is organized as follows. First, we discuss the current state of mental health services in the UK, including the number of people with a mental health problem, the types of services available, and the challenges facing them. Second, we discuss the challenges facing mental health services in the future, including the need to address the needs of people with mental health problems, the importance of providing them with appropriate services, and the need to address the needs of the community.
